

Federated Investors, Inc. Provides Details about Filings

(PITTSBURGH, Pa., November 4, 2009) – Federated Investors, Inc. (NYSE: FII), one of the nation’s largest investment managers, today provided further details about the Nov. 4, 2009 Form 4 filings of John F. Donahue, chairman; J. Christopher Donahue, president and chief executive officer; and Thomas R. Donahue, chief financial officer.

The transactions that are listed in these Form 4 filings were completed for family wealth transfer purposes. None of the transactions, including those reported as sales on the Form 4 filings of J. Christopher Donahue and Thomas R. Donahue, involved any public sale of shares.

###

Certain statements in this press release, such as those related to the purpose of the stock transactions by certain executives constitute forward-looking statements, which involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the actual results, levels of activity, performance or achievements of the company, or industry results, to be materially different from any future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Among other risks and uncertainties is the ability of the company to increase the stock price and the risk factors discussed in the company’s annual and quarterly reports as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. As a result, no assurance can be given as to future results, levels of activity, performance or achievements, and neither the company nor any other person assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of such statements in the future.